Effective January 29, 2008
 Revised January 9, 2014

United States Bankruptcy Court

The following flowchart identifies the steps in CM/ECF to open a case and e-file a petition. Column A lists the steps by number and identifies the CM/ECF “Bankruptcy Event,” to be selected from the Bankruptcy menu. The specific event is noted in bold capital letters following the number in parenthesis. Column B describes the lead document to be uploaded in the file format shown in Column C (either pdf or plain text). Please note that there may be several documents included in one pdf file, as is the case with a petition pdf file when you are submitting all schedules and statements with the petition. The description in Column B, therefore, includes documents that should be included in the petition.pdf file. Column D indicates whether or not there is an attachment to be uploaded in addition to the lead document. Notes are listed at the end of the flowchart. The step by step instructions hyperlink in each step takes you directly to the Online Electronic Manual and provides instructions and screen shots for every screen shown in that docket event.

- (b) Notice of Electronic Filing: CM/ECF creates a Notice of Electronic Filing (NEF) at the end of each document filing process and automatically sends the NEF via e-mail to attorneys on the case who are registered ECF users at their e-mail address(es) entered in CM/ECF. The NEF lists the names and e-mail addresses of attorneys to whom the e-mail was sent and, therefore, serves as the certificate of notice for attorneys who are registered ECF users. The NEF contains a hyperlink to the document pdf file. Viewing the document pdf file via this hyperlink constitutes the attorney’s free copy of the document.

The NEF also lists the names and mailing addresses of parties and attorneys on the case who are not registered users (and, therefore, would not receive notice via e-mail). E-filers are responsible for mailing paper copies of filed documents to the parties and attorneys who are not registered users, if entitled to notice, and for filing a certificate of service with the Clerk’s Office of having done so.
